

BrainWeave

Fellowship Programme

What is Brainweave?

Brainweave is an initiative which believes each children have extraordinary capabilities. In today's world creativity is as important as literacy. We aim at nurturing the upbringing of a child through cognitive as well as personality development. Through this they will achieve greatness in all walks of life whether social or professional.

Brainweave also promotes education in underprivileged society by enriching their mind and developing skills which makes them stand out in the society. We through thorough analysis have identified the common mistakes which makes a student grow out of creativity during his childhood. Through a specially designed curriculum we ensure that both the logical and creative aspect of his brain will be completely developed.

What is the job like?

Our fellows are the modern youth who can strongly identify and associate with the inadequacy in the current education. The job entails, fellows teaching a class of students. The teaching will be completely different from regular schooling. The fellows will be informed beforehand of the entire curriculum of the class. They would have to develop the course materials according to the curriculum and with the help of the guidance from the internship mentor.

Who should apply?

We expect our fellows to be passionate. They should be able to solve problems and be discerning. They should have excellent inter-personal skills and have out of the box thinking.

Why should you apply?

Through the internship, the fellows will develop leadership qualities. He/she will get an opportunity to interact with several professionals and become skilled in the art of teaching. The fellows will also get a competitive stipend of minimum ₹4000.

There are several other perks as the fellows will get a certificate of an internship as well as a certificate of contributing to social welfare by helping the underprivileged. The fellows, in turn, will also be developing their IQ and personality. There is also an opportunity of being permanently associated with the company and getting a letter of recommendation from the company.
